An unforgettable day awaits in Montebello, blending Canadian wildlife, nature, and history! Begin with a guided tour of Parc Oméga, where you can observe and feed Canadian animals for a unique experience. Continue with a meal at Fairmont Le Château Montebello, the world's largest log cabin, where you'll enjoy a menu featuring local products in an enchanting setting. Conclude your getaway with a guided tour of Manoir Papineau National Historic Site, a place that immerses you in the heritage and fascinating stories of French Canada and the region. A perfect excursion combining nature, culture, and gastronomy!

October 18, 2026	Places
8:30 a.m.	Departure from the hotel to the Parc Oméga (1 hour – 80 km)
10 a.m. to 12 p.m.	Guided tour of the Parc Oméga (2 hours) Since 1991, Parc Omega in Montebello has offered a unique experience in Quebec! Drive your vehicle along more than 12 kilometers of trails and discover a variety of animal species living in habitats that closely resemble their natural environments. You can even feed carrots to the deer that approach your car.
12 p.m.	Departure for the Fairmont Le Château Montebello (5 minutes – 4.4 km)
12:30 p.m. to 2 p.m.	Lunch and tour of the Fairmont Le Château Montebello (1h30) Conveniently located halfway between Montreal and Ottawa, the world's largest log cabin truly represents what you would expect of a "true Canadian experience." This architectural marvel has 210 guestrooms and two restaurants with exquisite menus featuring regional products.
2 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.	Walk to the next activity (5-minute walk – 350 metres)
2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.	Guided tour of the Manoir Papineau National Historic Site (1 hour) A page of 19th-century history unfolds before our eyes! It's impossible to resist the temptation to enter the seigneurial domain of Louis-Joseph Papineau. Flanked by four towers, the manor reigns over its grounds punctuated by a landscaped garden, expansive lawns, and a wooded area crossed by a stream.
3:30 p.m.	Return to the hotel (an hour – 8.1 km)
